

Induction Training of JTS level Officers

At least one such training program is organized annually based on the request received from ISS Cadre, if received. This is a six week long module held covering various topics like Statistical Methods, Official Statistics & Related Methodology, Office Management including Office Procedures & Communication, Field training/project, Fundamentals of computer and EDP (including Data Management & Analysis)