The particulars of organization, functions and duties of the Commission

The National Statistical Commission was constituted on 12th July 2006 to serve as a nodal and empowered body for all core statistical activities of the country and to evolve, monitor and enforce statistical priorities and standards and ensure statistical co-ordination. The Commission consists of a part-time Chairperson, four part-time Members and CEO, Niti Aayog, as an Ex-officio Member. The Chief Statistician of India (CSI) is the Secretary to the Commission. He has a dual role, as he is also the Secretary to the Government of India in the Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation.

The Government of India Resolution dated 1st June, 2005 gives the following as the functions of the Commission.

- (a) to identify the core statistics, which are of national importance and are critical to the development of the economy;
- (b) to constitute professional committees or working groups to assist the Commission on various technical issues;
- (c) to evolve national policies and priorities relating to the statistical system;
- (d) to evolve standard statistical concepts, definitions, classifications and methodologies in different areas in

Manual-3

Procedure followed in the decision making process, including channels of supervision and accountability

The Commission is an advisory body at present. Hence, there is no decision making process involved. The statistical issues as per the mandate of the Commission are initially processed by its Secretariat and thereafter, placed before the Commission for consideration and advice. The Commission after consultation with the concerned Government Departments where necessary gives its recommendations on the statistical issues referred to it.

The concerned Government Departments would be taking decisions on the recommendations made by the Commission from time to time on various statistical issues. The Commission is responsible to the Parliament as its Annual Reports for each financial year containing recommendations made during that period would be placed by the Government in both Houses of the Parliament along with a memorandum on the action taken.

In the Secretariat of the Commission, the channels of supervision and accountability are given below.
