off after biker's fatal crash

Shimla: The competition in Extreme category of 18th Maruti Suzuki Raid-de-Himalaya was called off after the death of a biker in the third leg of the race. A 47-year old biker Shubhamoy Paul from Kolkata died yesterday after his two-wheeler fell 70-feet down in the third leg of Raid-de-Himalaya near Chhatru in the Losar-Gramphoo section, about 67 km from Keylong compelling the organisers to cancel the extreme category.

However, the Adventure category would proceed as scheduled but maximum speed for the riders has been limited to 45-km per hour. PH
