Dear Colleague,

Re: Vacancy Announcement: Chief of Demographic Section in UNSD

The purpose of this letter is to inform you that our Division has begun the process of recruiting for the position of Chief of Demographic Statistics Section. This is due to the departure of Mr J.M. Durr.

This is an established senior position located within the United Nations Statistics Division (UNSD) in New York. The Chief of Section is expected to lead UNSD's work programme in population and housing censuses, administrative registers, vital statistics and civil registration. He or she will provide leadership in technical cooperation activities aimed at strengthening demographic statistics at the national level; direct the development of standards and methods in the different areas of demographic statistics; plan the compilation and dissemination of demographic statistics; and prepare reports on the section's area of work for presentation to the Statistical Commission and other policy-making organs.

We are looking for candidates with solid experience in the field of demographic statistics, preferably including some of the above-mentioned subject areas, and strong leadership and management skills.

You will find the vacancy announcement, including the detailed responsibilities of the Advisor and the required competencies, on the website of the United Nations Office of Human Resource Management at <http://jobs.un.org>. Please select the 'Vacancies' tab on this page and click the occupational group 'statistics'; at the bottom of the page entitled "Compendium-occupational groups".

The deadline for applications is 20 June 2010. I would appreciate it if you could share this information with prospective candidates who might be interested in applying for this position. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Cheung
Director
Statistics Division/DESA
